

Remember in Your Prayers the Soul of

born at St. Denis, Belgium, Aug. 15, 1845; died in the town of Union, Wisconsin, May 1, 1922, and was buried in St. Mary's cemetery, May 3, 1922.

Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord, from henceforth now, saith the Spirit, they may rest from their labors, their works follow them.

The sorrows of death have compassed me, and there was no one to help me; I met with trouble and sorrow and called upon the name of the Lord. Ps. CVI-CXIV.

He was an active man, without hypocrisy, always prepared to assist his fellowmen: Therefore he was beloved by God and man and his memory will be blessed. (Eccl.)

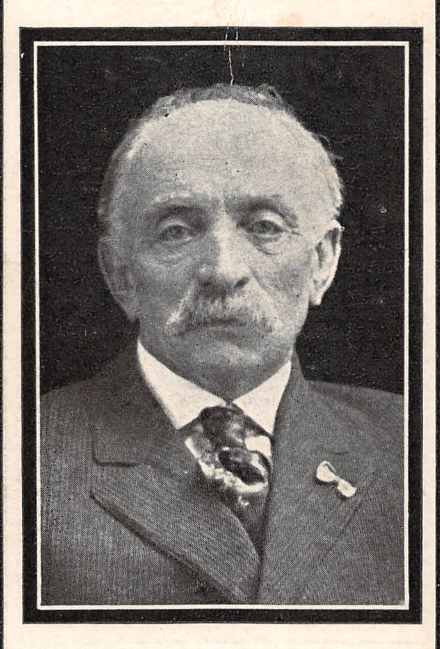

(My dear children), you now indeed have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice; and your joy no man shall take from you. S. John xvi: 22.

Sweet Hearts of Jesus and Mary be my salvation. (300 days ind.)

OUR FATHER. HAIL MARY.
